It will be gratifying to the students and the people of Columbia and the adjoining counties to Adair, to know that the Lindsey-Wilson will reopen on Monday, the 26th of this month.

There was but one expression when the school closed, temporarily, and that was regret. A little excitement is soon over, hence the school should not have closed. As is known by all the people of this county, Mr. Jeffries is our jailer, and a man who filling his office in a most satisfactory manner, receiving the endorsement of the people as well as any man who has filled this position for many years. So far as we have heard not a criticism has been made against his official conduct, either from the unfortunates who have occupied the cells or the people in general—a position, a distinction rarely enjoyed by any man. Personally Mr. Jeffries is an agreeable, pleasant gentleman and takes the view of the bright side of life which adds sunshine rather than shadow with his fellow man. He doubtless enjoys as many friends as any public official could hope to have, and uses The News to inform his party that he asks for approval in the form of the party nomination in the August primary, and if given will use all honorable means to prove worthy in the final contest between the parties. Gentlemen of the Democratic faith, you know Gus: you know he is not only a good jailer, but will appreciate all the aid that will come to him in the contest. In the next few months he will call upon the voters of the county.

PERUNA in Your Home

A housewife must give the first aid in colds, coughs and other ailments. Her promptness in applying the remedy often saves a serious illness. Her experience with remedies has led her to know that PERUNA is always reliable, that she should have it on hand for the immediate treatment of colds and colds, and that it is always to her

Mrs. George Parker,
439 Water St., Men-
asha, Wis., writes:
"We have used Peruna in our family for
over 40 years, and have found it a perfectly
reliable medicine.
It soon takes the system out of a cold, and prevents serious consequences."
"I began using it
for catarrh, which I suffered with a
good many years,
but had not been very serious until recently.
Since I have taken Peruna the discharge of my throat has discontinued, and my head and nose
are not so stopped up in the morning. I am pleased with the results, and shall continue to use it until I am entirely rid of catarrh."
"I heartily recommend it as an honest medicine."
What it does for her it is ready to do for you."

The experience of one woman, given herewith, is typical of thousands of letters that reach the Peruña Company from grateful
friends who have found their homes incomplete, and their family safety in danger without
PERUNA.

Danger Signal.

If the fire bell should ring would you run and stop it or go and help to put out the fire? It is much the same way with a cough. A cough is a danger signal as much as a fire bell. You should no more try to suppress it than
to stop a fire bell when it is ringing,
but should cure the disease that causes
the coughing. This can nearly always be done by taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Many have used it with the most beneficial results. It is especially valuable for the persistent cough that so often follows a bad cold or an attack of the grip. Mrs. Thomas Andrews, Ind., writes:

"During the winter my husband takes
cold easily and coughs and coughs.
Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best medicine for breaking up these attacks and you cannot get him to take any other." Obtainable at Paull Drug Co.

Inactivity Causes Constipation.

Lack of exercise in the winter is a frequent cause of constipation. You feel heavy, dull and listless, your complexion is sallow and pimply, and energy at low ebb. Clean up this condition at once with Dr. King's New lieves the congested intestines without gripping. A dose before retiring will assure you a full and easy movement in the morning. 25c at Paull

The people here are up-to-date farmers and are now enjoying the great wave of prosperity to which they are entitled for the honest and energetic labors they have performed in cultivating the soil. They realize that every thing they have to sell brings high and remunerative prices, and therefore they are in a glee mood.

The future seems bright, as "coming events cast their shadows before."

The Green river valley is noted for the fertility of its soil and the hospitality of its citizens.

Some time ago we visited our old friend John Knifley, and the reception we received was cordial in the highest degree. Every member of his family is debonair and his beautiful daughters are not surpassed in Adair county for their accomplishments and popularity. If you should pass John Knifley and want good dinner, call at his house and be hospitably received. When you come to the South side of Green river you will meet the Williams boys, Millers, Reed and others, who will gladly welcome you to their domiciles. Pass to Mont Harmon's and you find an energetic farmer, whose hospitality is unbounded. W. R. Knifley comes next, and you may rest assured you will meet a genial and prosperous farmer, who can entertain you in a superb manner.

P. P. Wesley, one of the best men of this section, and who owns one of the best farms in Adair county will always receive you with a facetious smile.

The majority of the people here favor State wide prohibition, and their battle cry is,

"Ring out the old ring in the new, Ring out the false, ring in the true."

Fonthill.

Quite a number here are confined with measles. Finley Richardson, who has been confined for some time, is improving slowly.

Mr. Robert Thomas and wife, of East Fork, visited here Sunday.

Mr. James Ragh, a prominent farmer, of Casey county, has moved into our midst. We wish him a prosperous future.

Mr. Leander Smith, who has been engaged in the milling business here for a number of years, has sold his interest to Mr. Willie Holtzclaw.

Mr. N. J. Judd, of Smithfield, Ill., visited relatives here Thursday, after an absence of 37 years. Mr. Judd grew to manhood here, and his many friends were glad to meet him.

Albert Hammond, the well known live stock dealer, of Turkey Fork, was here Saturday.

John Irwin was at Russell Springs on business Wednesday.

Cornelius Stephens, a prominent farmer, of Eli, was here Friday, and bought a nice bunch of hogs of Jack Brown, at 9 cents per pound.

Uncle Willie Shepherd visited friends and relatives on Mountain Tea Ridge, Saturday.

Mr. Frank Hughes, deputy sheriff, of Russell Springs, was here Friday.

Will Ragh, a prominent merchant of Windsor, spent Saturday night with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Ragh.

Mr. J. D. Hammond, a prominent merchant of Brady, was here Saturday.

Newton Emerson, who resides here has recently come in possession of an ancient iron kettle that has been preserved for ages. We hope the old-time relic will be preserved, in order that the future generation will learn the manner of cooking utensils our forefathers used.

Our town continues to prosper. Fonthill is surrounded by as good farming country as Russell county affords. The farmers here are industrious, and are making good. We are only 3½ miles from the Casey county line. The only disadvantage we have is the lack of good roads.

Steps are being taken to safeguard all American ports to quell disturbances by German sympathizers.

Editor News:

Since our last letter we have had two northers. On Wednesday morning it was clear and bright, but by ten o'clock the wind began to blow from the North, and before night it was cold as Christmas, and by Thursday morning the thermometer was the lowest of the winter—14 degrees above zero. Then yesterday (Sunday) morning, it was a fine prospect for a beautiful day. We all went to Sunday School and church, and enjoyed it all real well. 165 in Sunday School. They have three violins and one piano, associated with the choir, and the music was fine.

We were all invited to take dinner with Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Morgan, who live within 1½ miles of town. He has a beautiful place with twenty-seven acres of rich land, and nice fruit trees of different kinds. One room of his house is used as a museum. He has a great variety of specimens of ore and metal from different parts of the country, and a great variety of fire arms of ancient times, and many Indian relics. He values his museum very highly. He could sell his little farm for more than $5,000. He is a brother to Ed and Graaive Morgan, of Cumberland county. Mrs. Morgan is a native of Kentucky, but has lived in Texas since her girlhood. She had prepared an excellent dinner for us, and we laid off the diet restraint for the day, and do not feel any worse for it. We were enjoying the afternoon—having a splendid social time. Some one happened to look out and observed a real sand storm, with a high gale from the North, and again a sudden change in the weather, cold again before night. We waited until we thought all the dust was blown off the pike and we started home with old George and the rockaway. I took the lines to drive, and before we started my hat was blown away and Mr. Morgan ran after it, and after a considerable race caught it. Then I was compelled to get a driver to bring us home so I could hold on my hat, and J. D. Morgan kindly offered his services.

Talk about avoiding the gripe here! Some folks have already had it three times this winter, but in spite of all these unpleasant things, this is a great country, for it doesn't stay cold long, neither does one have the gripe longer than three or four days usually.

Corn planting will begin by the 10th of this month. The cold weather has killed most of the early vegetables in this state, it has caused a great loss to gardeners.

Last Friday we spent a very pleasant day at cousin Mack Ray's. His wife is a daughter of cousin Amanda Miller's, who makes her home there when in Belton. Mr. Ray has 4 sons and 2 daughters. Three sons are working in the store of Ray & Elliott, and one son is at school. The two daughters, Daisy and Cora, were at home. After enjoying a most excellent dinner, prepared to suit the taste and appetite of all present, we were entertained in the afternoon with some fine music on the violin.

Cousin Amanda Miller is the same quiet, spiritual minded woman here that she is in Kentucky when she makes her visits there. It is a pleasure to be with her. She is an own cousin of W. B., and R. F., Rowe, of Columbia.

We hope to visit at Temple some this week, and other points out of town. We are both feeling some better and hope for more improvement as the weather gets better.
